COMMONER
1968

DAYTON, TENNESSEE

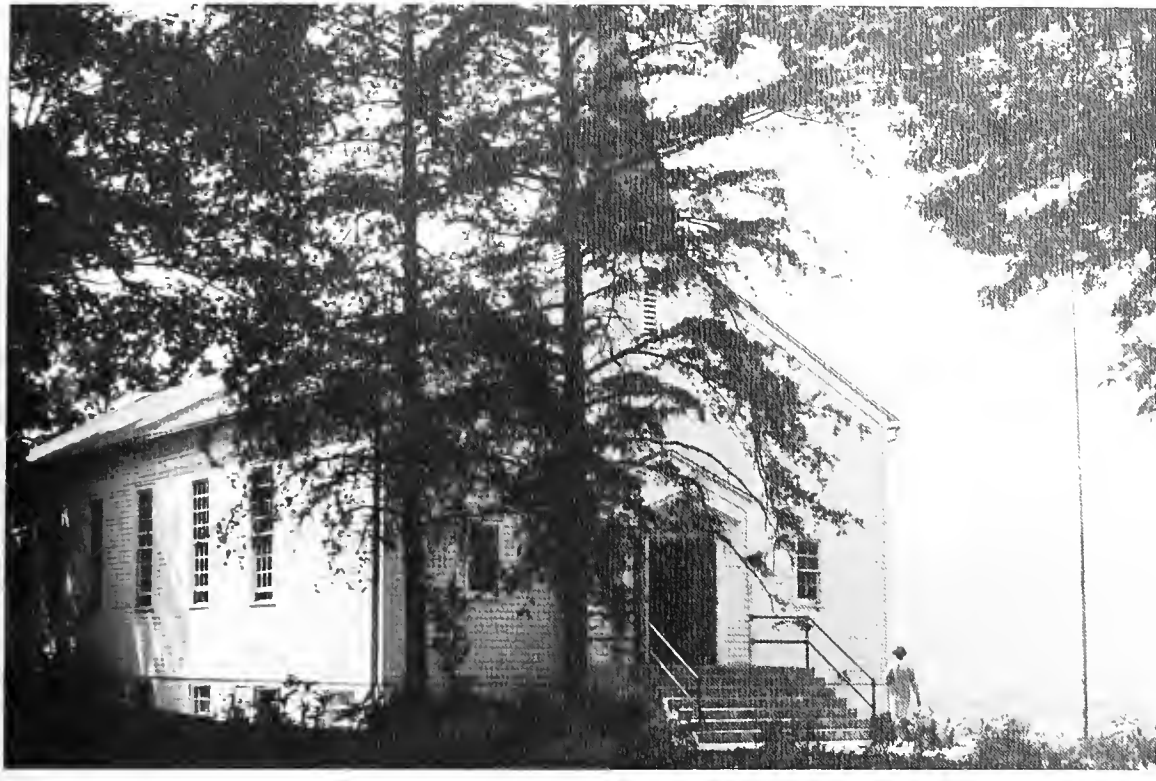

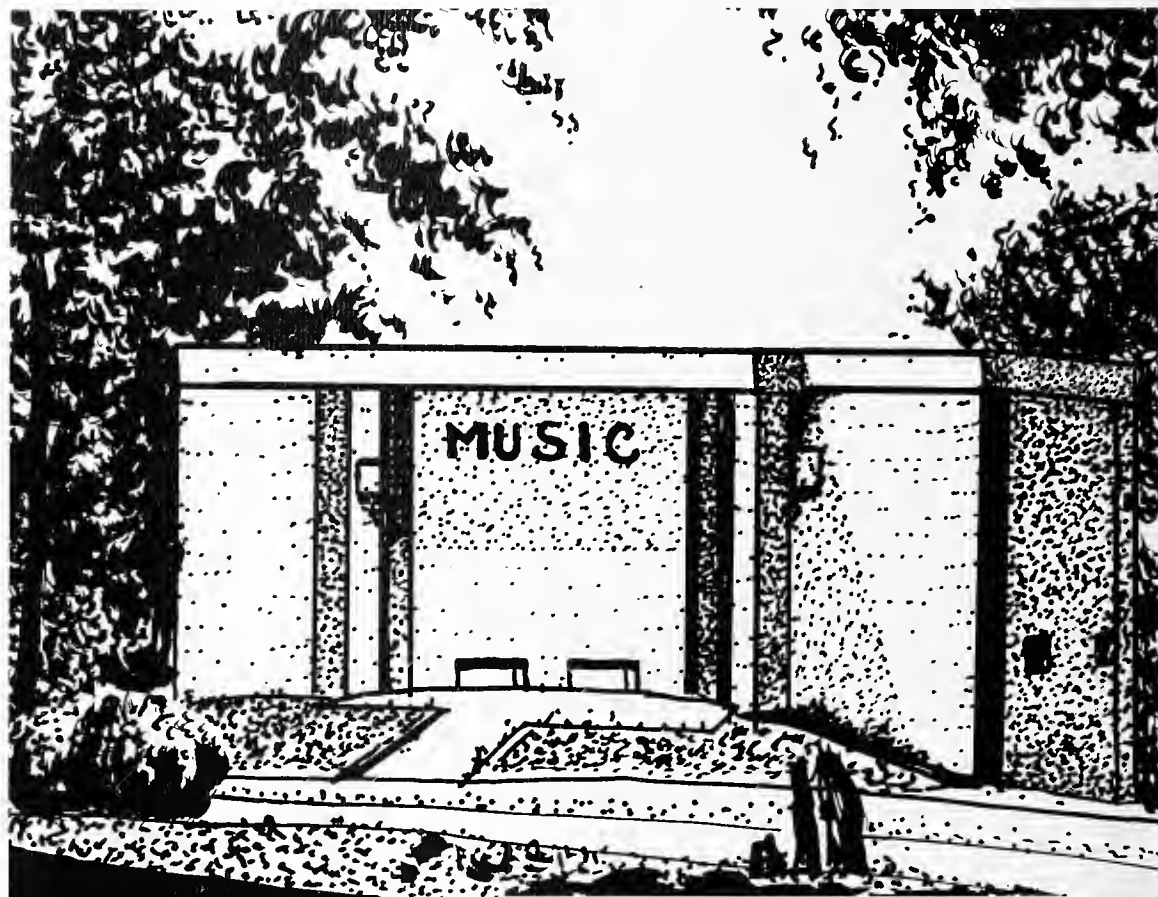

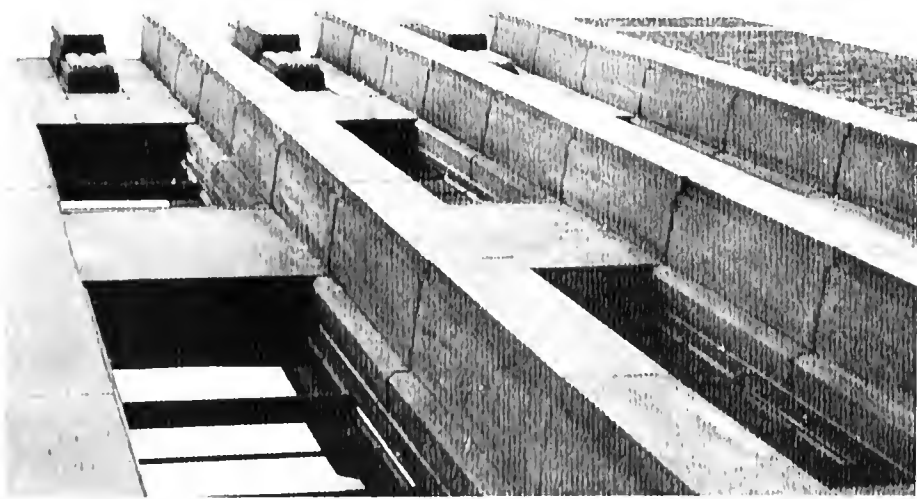

BRYAN IS

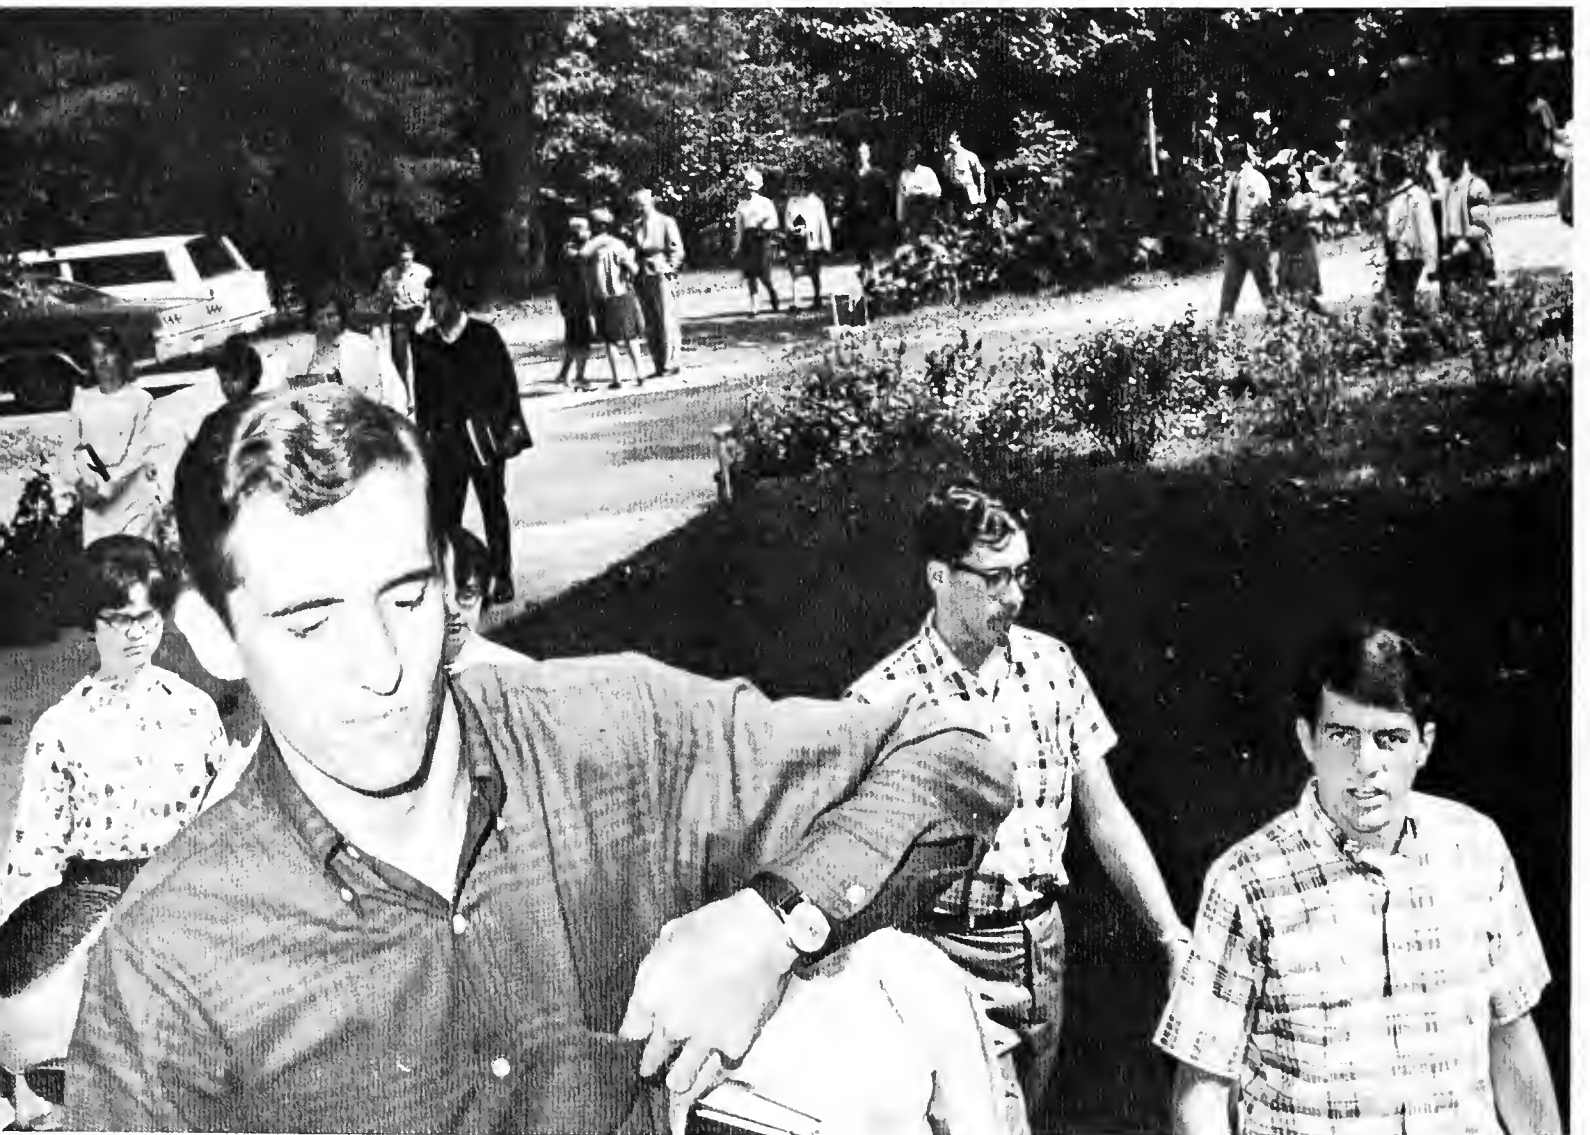

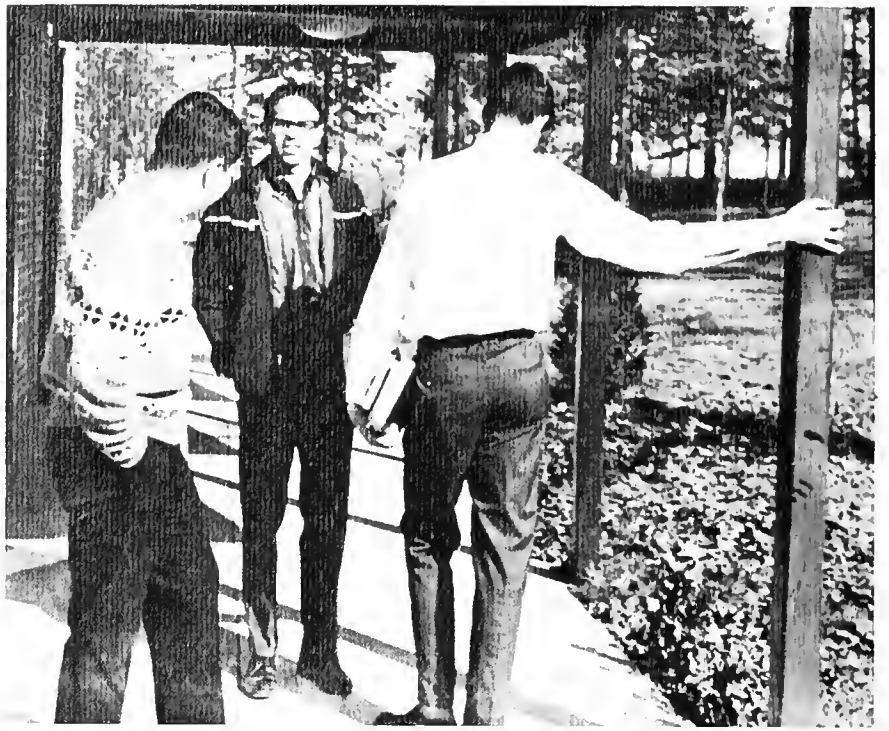

To some . . . peaceful hills and blossoming dogwoods complementing a collection of BUILDINGS--tall, short, square, octagonal--each displaying its scenic silhouette against a Tennessee sky.

To others . . . the PEOPLE within these buildings -- manifesting faces and expressions of excitment, anger, joy, seriousness, accomplishment.

To us . . . the SPIRIT within these people--generated conversely by a thoughtful chapel service or a thrilling basketball game, a lionette confab or a meaningful class. The essence of Bryan is this unified, yet individually unique SPIRIT.

Tribute

We are grateful to L. Daryle Worley for the sense of musical appreciation which he communicates to us. His life at Bryan is a constant medley of choir, madrigals, oratorios, and opera which he shares with each of us. He epitomizes Colossians 3: 15. "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord."

Student Council

Christian Service Association

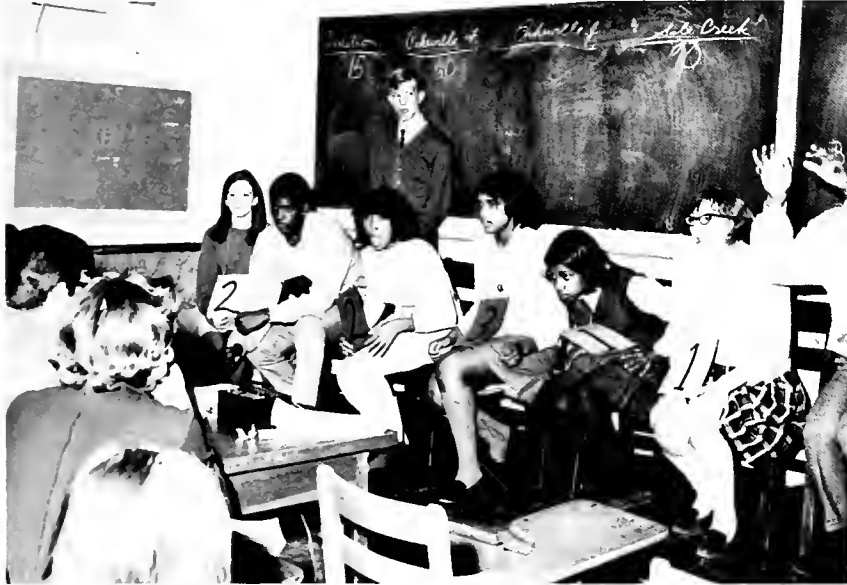

Teaching Bible in the local elementary schools, holding weekend revivals in area churches, conducting Child Evangelism classes, and witnessing in the county jail-- all these are voluntary activities of those who participate.

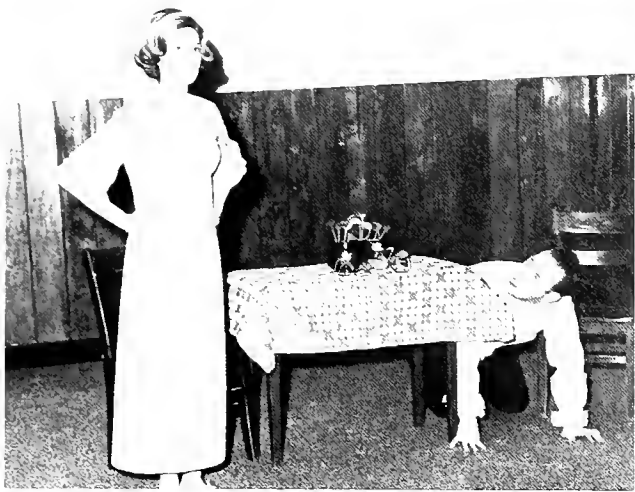

Youth For Christ

The outreach of this organization, growing with the help of a dozen collegians to a thousand high schoolers in the Tennessee Valley, demonstrates that Christ is for youth.

Who's Who

Chosen by the faculty for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, these outstanding seniors have shown abilities in scholarship and leadership; they are worthy recipients of this distinctive honor.

Clockwise: Dave Johnson, Ramona Anderson, Karl Keefer, Sue Voss, Al Mawhinney, Ralph Grosser, Karen Hogue.

Social Committee

Hilltopper

Bryan's bi-monthly newspaper relates college happenings and reflects student opinion.

BARE
TREE

Coffeehouse philosophers read excerpts from Cummings, Ionesco, Ginsberg, Albee, Rand, and others that showed widely divergent views of this world. We were led from a bare tree of human despair, doubt, and longing, to the triumphant bare tree of Calvary portrayed by C. S. Lewis.

Bible Conference

The down-to-earth Dr. Manford Gutzke and the lovely-voiced Clint and Jarvis Rose Nichols made Bible Conference of special interest to the students before second semester classes began.

Biblical Studies And Philosophy

The synthesis of a rational approach to human knowledge and a useful grasp of God's revelation to man leads us to an understanding of Truth.

Dr. Furman Miller, Old Testament instructor, discusses a vital topic with other intellectuals.

Professor of Bible

Mr. Thomas Eckel
Assistant Professor of
Bible and Philosophy

Mr. Alan Winkler
Assistant Professor of Christian Education

Education And Psychology

Developing students to be learners prepares them to guide others in the exciting search for knowledge.

Professor of Education

Mr. E. Donald Hill
Assistant Professor of Education

Mr. Bruce C. Meadows
Assistant Professor of Education

Mr. Jack D. Wells
Instructor in Physical Education and Health

Language And Literature

Because the things which men think are reflected in their writings, a comprehensive study of the standards of excellence is essential. From Hebrew and Greek to the linguistic approach in modern English, students probe both written and oral communication.

Mr. Thomas A. Eckel, French instructor

Mr. Richard Cornelius
